

Emma White – Biography

Emma White has been working for Legal Aid Ontario since July 2017. She is a staff research lawyer for LAO LAW, practicing family, child protection, immigration, and refugee law. Emma authors LAO LAW's weekly publication, The Bottom Line in Refugee Law. Previously, Emma worked as an Eligibility Associate for the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees in Bangkok, Thailand.

Emma co-authored a chapter in Property Rights and Obligations Under Ontario Family Law, published by Canada Law Book, and contributed research and writing to Canadian Family and Immigration Law: Intersections, Developments and Conflicts, published by Carswell.