

Kristin Marshall – Biography

Kristin Marshall has assumed many roles working with immigrants and refugees: private practice, RLO representing refugees and immigrants in detention, design and delivery of training workshops for survivors of domestic violence with CLEO, clinical instructor at DLS and supervising lawyer with IHRP, both at U of T. Kristin just finished setting up training modules and mentorships as Sr. Refugee Law Trainer at LAO, and is now working as trainer/supervising lawyer with Toronto East Immigration Legal Services. She is pecking away at a part-time M. Ed. at OISE's Social Justice Education department and is involved with many organizations that promote refugee rights. She loves baking and bike riding.