

Nadine Edirmanasinghe – Biography

Nadine Edirmanasinghe is ethically qualified to be on this panel. She once, while in high school, gave back $20, when the ATM spit out too much money by accident. (The teller at the bank asked her several times if she was sure.)

She has worked and volunteered in the field of immigration and refugee law, in various capacities and with various agencies, for the past several years, including: South Ottawa Community Legal Services (SOCLS), the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) in Canada, and the Ottawa Community Immigrant Services Organization (OCISO). She currently operates her own private practice, Edirmana Law, which specializes in immigration and refugee law.
