

Nathan Benson – Biography

Nathan Benson is Director of Strategy at Pathways International, helping to shape and execute the organization's strategies to grow pathways to protection for refugees and migrants around the world, and contributing to key projects and partnerships such as the Global Refugee Sponsorship Initiative and the Resettlement Diplomacy Network. He previously led the organization's knowledge team as Legal and Research Director and is the former National Director of the Refugee Sponsorship Support Program. A lawyer by training, Nathan has practiced law at Canada's federal justice department and a leading immigration and refugee firm and clerked at the Federal Court of Canada. He is a former co-chair of the Canadian Association of Refugee Lawyers' litigation committee.