

Ronald Poulton

Ronald Poulton became a lawyer in 1987. He worked as a civil and criminal litigator and then joined the United Nations working in refugee law, human rights investigations and then as legal advisor to UN Peacekeeping in Tajikistan. Beginning in 1995 he began practicing immigration and refugee law in Canada. He has appeared in the Federal Court Trial Division and Court of Appeal on numerous occasions and in the Supreme Court of Canada three times on appeals from the Federal Court. He is the author of "Pale Blue Hope: Death and Life in Asian Peacekeeping." He lives and works in Toronto.