

Samuel Plett– Biography

Samuel Plett is the Head of Litigation at Desloges Carvajal Law Group. Samuel represents clients before the Federal Court and Federal Court of Appeal. Samuel also represents clients in immigration and refugee appeals, and complex inadmissibility matters.

Samuel offers a variety of litigation support services for lawyers, with a particular focus on digitization and Federal Court e-Litigation. Samuel works with lawyers to help them digitize their litigation practice and find efficiencies using technology. Samuel also collaborates with other lawyers as co-counsel or as a litigation consultant.

Samuel is a member of the Canadian Association of Refugee Lawyers, the Refugee Lawyers Association, and the Canadian Bar Association.

Samuel is a regular presenter and instructor at professional development courses for lawyers and immigration practitioners.

In 2015, Samuel received the Canadian Bar Association Immigration Law Section Founders' Award, given to a young lawyer "for achieving professional excellence, providing leadership, and making a significant contribution to the Canadian citizenship & immigration community."

Samuel and his family moved to Italy when he was four years old, and they split their ten years there between a small town in Tuscany and mainland Venice. As a result, Samuel enjoys cooking (and eating) Italian food and traveling. Samuel is also an avid cyclist.
