

Tamara Mosher-Kuczer – Biography

Tamara Mosher-Kuczer is the founder of Lighthouse Immigration Law in Ottawa, Ontario, where she practices exclusively in the areas of Citizenship & Immigration law. Tamara has been designated as a Certified Specialist in Immigration and Citizenship Law by the Law Society of Ontario (LSO).

Tamara is an active member of the Canadian Bar Association (CBA) Immigration Section, the Canadian Immigration Lawyers Association (CILA), and the Ottawa Immigration Bar. Tamara has served as the CBA Immigration Section Executive's inaugural IRCC Portal Coordinator since 2021. Tamara previously served as the CBA Immigration Section's External Relations Coordinator from 2016-2018. Tamara is a regular speaker at the Canadian Bar Association, the Ontario Bar Association and the Law Society of Ontario.

Tamara is also extremely active on social media, particularly Twitter. You can follow her @TTRRMK.

Tamara holds a J.D. from Dalhousie University, an LL.L from the University of Ottawa, and a Bachelor of Arts from McGill University.